

Jimmy Nichols has become a musical Icon in the Nashville Music community, and his 50 year career has seen many successes, from TV soundtracks and talkshow appearances, movie appearances, to appearing on thousands of recordings with artists as varied as Reba, Faith, Tim McGraw, Elton John, Keith Urban, and Carrie Underwood, just to name a few. He's played and sang on over 4 s0 number one and top 10 songs, Along with starting his own publishing Company and record label. After touring 23 years with his family, known as the Nichols brothers, he also toured extensively as musical director for both Faith Hill, Tim McGraw and Reba McEntire. The Soul2Soul II tour with Tim and Faith was the highest grossing country concert in history. These days you can find Jimmy in his brand new recording studio on his 11 acre estate with his wife Tonya and their four wiener dogs. When he's not in the studio, he'll still sign himself out on the road performing songs that he's written with other award-winning songwriters, and share their stories to inspire young artists and writers to become active in the music Business.